WELCOME

Welcome to Cafe Hub. Relax and enjoy a coffee and cake or something more substantial. Treat yourself to a glass of wine or a wee dram! We hope you enjoy your visit to Cafe Hub today. Our food is homemade, all created on site by our own team of Chefs. We like to call it 'Hubmade'.

HISTORY OF THE HUB

This historic, Grade A listed building forms an integral part of the architectural fabric of Edinburgh. It was constructed between 1842 and 1845 as the Victoria Hall to house the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland. The Hub's Spire is the highest point in central Edinburgh. Curiously, the building was never consecrated as a church.

In 1929 the Church of Scotland ceased to use the building and it became a temporary home for a variety of congregations. It was named the Highland Tolbooth St John's Church in 1956, before falling into disuse in the 1980s.

THE HUB TODAY

In 1999, the building was transformed into The Hub, the offices and a performance space for the Edinburgh International Festival. The building is a stunning combination of award-winning contemporary design and classic Victorian architecture.

As well as accommodating various events during the International Festival in August each year, The Hub offers a truly unique and spectacular space for a variety of events, including conferences, banquets, weddings, educational workshops and exhibitions.

EDINBURGH INTERNATIONAL FESTIVAL 9 AUGUST – 2 SEPTEMBER 2012

The Edinburgh International Festival was founded in 1947 to enliven and enrich the cultural life of Europe, Britain and Scotland and 'provide a platform for the flowering of the human spirit'. One of the most important cultural celebrations in the world, the Festival invites major international artists and companies to present a thrilling programme of classical music, opera, theatre and dance over three weeks every August and early September.

Echoing our founding aims, Festival 2012 explores the power of the arts to transcend geographical boundaries and differences – uniting people from around the world. See the stars of today alongside the next generation of world-class artists and immerse yourself in a unique celebration of artistic excellence.

Our food is freshly made on site by our own team of Chefs. It contains no additives or flavourings, only natural ingredients.
